Sharq Village & Spa, Do ★★★★★ (out of 5 stars)

From the hotel's website: A maze of courtyards meanders organically from 300 meters of private coastline to reveal a luxury beach hotel in Doha, Qatar that blends the modern world and storied tradition in a breathtaking setting. Guests are welcomed to a lobby where crystal-draped chandeliers hang from towering arched ceilings and Arabic music teases the senses with a contemporary touch. They are enticed by nine restaurants and lounges to experience both unique and traditional flavors, and to revel in the services of a spa that soothes with both traditional and holistic treatments.

Our verdict: The hotel is part of the Ritz Carlton hotel group and very well maintained. We stayed 3 nights at Sharq Village and have to say that we never have experienced such welcoming and wonderful staff at any other 5 star hotel during our extensive travels. Everyone we met was so lovely and accommodating from the moment we arrived till we unfortunately had to leave. We loved the food and the exceptional service at the Parisa restaurant. We are very happy that we found Ritz Carlton Sharq Village Hotel for our stopover in Doha. The location and the Arabian architecture of the hotel, the grounds, the pools and of course the layout and beauty of the room which has been equipped with everything we needed made it a perfect stay.
